VISIT VACAVILLE LAUNCHES RESTAURANT WEEK PROMOTION JANUARY 18-27

Program Part of Statewide California Restaurant Month Promoting California's Culinary Experiences

Vacaville, Calif. 1-3-19—Several local businesses will celebrate Vacaville Restaurant Week January 18-27, announced Melyssa Laughlin, president and CEO of Visit Vacaville.

“Vacaville Restaurant Week is an incredible opportunity to take advantage of some of most authentic culinary experiences in our destination, not available at any other time of the year,” Melyssa noted. “January is also a great time to get hotel deals and experience the diversity of what our destination offers, from shopping and family fun to outdoor and agricultural adventures.”

Here’s how it works: from January 18th-27th, 2019, you'll find specials on food, drinks, and desserts at participating restaurants all over town. From Prix Fix fare to discounted appetizers and one-week-only special entrees, restaurants in Vacaville bring no shortage of creativity and good taste to this yearly event. In previous years, restaurants like Backdoor Bistro, Merchant and Main, Peace Love and Boba, Los Reyes, Roline's, and Buddha Thai have rolled out the red carpet to showcase the vibrant, local flavor and flair that makes their food so special. So, bring your appetite as we eat our way across Vacaville during this January! “California’s ever-evolving food culture and innovative culinary offerings makes it the perfect destination during our ninth annual California Restaurant Month,” said Visit California President and CEO Caroline Beteta. “Communities across the state will showcase their dining highlights, serving up the best dishes and celebrations from Mendocino to San Diego.”
