

Visit Vacaville is proud to announce the first ever Vacaville Arts Week!

Filmmakers, photographers, painters, sculptors, dancers and jazz musicians from across the city are preparing to take part in the inaugural event, which runs Friday, September 13 to Sunday, September 22. Created through a partnership of VACA, the Vacaville Arts and Culture Alliance, and Visit Vacaville, this weeklong celebration of the arts will include live demonstrations, cultural and performing arts, live music, historic art, and more at participating locations throughout the city.

Here's a sneak peek at a few of the events happening around town.

Ag & Art Film Festival - September 13-15

Enjoy film screenings, VIP passholder parties, and more! This inaugural event brings together agriculture and art through storytelling and cinema, with a mission to support small local farms and the humane treatment of all living beings.

Films will screen at various locations throughout Vacaville, including a ticketed opening night Meet the Filmmakers party at La Borgata Winery & Distillery in Pleasants Valley, and a free community screening in Andrews Park. The community screening will include a nighttime farmers market where moviegoers can meet local farmers, peruse artisan booths, purchase food, and watch a family-friendly, agriculture-themed film under the stars. VIP tickets are also available. All catered events will feature chefs who utilize locally-sourced food and wine.

Vacaville Art Gallery – Out in the Country Exhibit Grand Opening – September 14

This exhibit runs through Art Week and beyond, with a grand opening on September 14.

Downtown Wine & Art Stroll – September 14

Enjoy wine, art, and local brews at this lively afternoon-to-evening stroll through the downtown district.

Young Artists Conservatory of Music (YACM) , Music Education Faire – September 14

Join YACM from 3 to 6 pm for demonstrations, music clinics, a staff meet and greet and BBQ. Discounts will be offered for new enrollments during the event.

YACM 5 Year Anniversary and Grand Re-Opening – September 18

YACM will offer an evening of music, mingling, wine, appetizers and tours during its grand re-opening celebration from 5:30 to 7:30 pm.

Creekwalk Night Market – September 19

Stop by the YACM booth and others for Arts Week demonstrations from 5 to 7:30 pm.

Vacaville Jazz Festival - September 20-22

Enjoy live jazz and military tributes in Downtown Vacaville and The Nut Tree! Now in its 20th year, this annual event will feature local jazz musicians and military ensembles.

Additional events hosted by Imagine That, Sweet Pea's, Live Music Center, and VPAT will be held throughout the week.
